

Annex E: Shortened version of the one-pager framework and comparison with Gavi 5.1

To provide flexibility while keeping essential information easily accessible, below is a shortened one-pager framework (preliminary version) for certain communication purposes. Following the June Board meeting decision, the Gavi website would be updated and feature a drop-down section that expands into the full version for each item described in the one-pager.

In addition, below is a track-changes version of the one-pager, showing the main changes from the 5.1 version to 6.0 (in blue):
