Section B: Content

3. Constituency processes for Board and Committee nominations

3.1 In February 2016, the Governance Committee approved the establishment of a Subcommittee for the Recruitment of Unaffiliated Board Members. The Subcommittee reviewed the role specification and timelines for the selection and appointment of Unaffiliated Board Members, and put forward a nomination in June to fill one of the two seats which were vacant at that time.

3.2 Since the June Board meeting, the Subcommittee has continued its work and has put forward a further nomination to the Governance Committee at this Board meeting for consideration.

3.3 Board members representing eligible organisations (WHO, UNICEF, World Bank, Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation) serve until their organisations inform Gavi that they would like to change them. On 22 July 2016, UNICEF submitted nominations to the Secretary to the Board in the context of Geeta Rao Gupta’s retirement from UNICEF.

3.4 Nominations from the developing country governments were submitted following consultative processes within the relevant group. For the Anglophone AFRO constituency, the matter of constituency representation was raised at the constituency meeting which was organised within the margins of the World Health Assembly in Geneva in May, as well as during a constituency meeting in the margins of the WHO Regional Committee meeting in Addis Ababa in August. In light of the fact that the incumbent Board Member is no longer Minister of Health in his country, and that he has indicated his desire to step down from the Board, the constituency agreed to nominate the new Minister of Health, Community Development, Gender, Elderly and Children of the United Republic of Tanzania to replace him both on the Board and on the Programme and Policy Committee.

3.5 In the meantime the Alternate Board member also came to the end of his term as Minister of Health in his country and did not indicate his wish to remain on the Gavi Board. In line with a standing agreement within the constituency, the new Minister of Health of Ethiopia confirmed his interest in taking over the role of Alternate Board member for the constituency from his predecessor. The agreement of the constituency was obtained by the Secretary to the Board by email correspondence with all countries in the constituency.

3.6 For the SEARO/WPRO constituency, the incumbent Board member also came to the end of his term as Minister of Health in his country and did not indicate a wish to remain on the Gavi Board. Following consultation with the constituency, two nominations were forwarded to the Governance Committee for consideration, namely from Myanmar and Nepal, and the result of the Governance Committee deliberations is being submitted to the Board for consideration.

3.7 Nominations from donor country governments were submitted following consultative processes within the relevant groups.

3.8 Nominations for independent evaluation expert members of the EAC were confirmed by the EAC Chair, following a process whereby he firstly asked the Secretariat to compile a list of potential evaluation experts. He then reviewed and confirmed the final list and took it upon himself to approach individuals to ascertain both their interest in becoming a member of the Committee, their willingness to commit to attending two Committee meetings per year as well as carrying out a number of tasks which would be required of them between Committee meetings.

3.9 In line with the Board Committee Charters which stipulate that “all members shall be appointed once every two years”, all appointments to the Board Committees are being proposed to 31 December 2017, at which time all Committees will be reviewed and refreshed as appropriate. This principle does not apply to the Evaluation Advisory Committee.

Section C: Risk implication and mitigation and Financial Implications

4. Risk implication and mitigation

4.1 There is capacity risk for the Board if recommended candidates are not appointed and empty seats are not filled in a timely manner after terms expire but at the same time it is important to ensure that a suitably deliberative process is undertaken to evaluate the suitability of nominations to the Board and/or Board Committees to ensure the effectiveness of the governance system of the Gavi Alliance.
Section D: Implications

5. Impact on countries and Gavi stakeholders

5.1 Ensuring that nominations are submitted in a timely manner and that seats can be filled helps to ensure representation of constituency views on the Board and Board Committees.

6. Legal and governance implications

6.1 Governance implications are listed throughout this paper.

7. Consultation

7.1 Information on consultation processes for the nomination of Board members are outlined in Section B.

8. Gender implications

8.1 Board-approved guidelines on the Gavi Board gender balance state that a ratio of 60/40 male/female Board Members and Alternate Board members should be established and maintained. For the purposes of this calculation, the Board Members and Alternate Members are assessed as separate groups. The gender balance is deemed to be within the acceptable range if there is no more than 60% of any one gender.

8.2 The Board currently has 14 men (58%) and 10 women (42%). 11 alternates are men (65%) and six are women (35%). There are currently five vacant seats.

8.3 Based on the nominations received and pending Board approval, as of 1 January 2017, the Board would be composed of 15 men (54%) and 13 women (46%). 12 alternates would be men (67%) and six would be women (33%).

Section E: Biographies

9. This section provides the biographies of nominees to the Board and to the Board Committees.

10. Board members

10.1 Margaret (Peggy) Hamburg is the former Commissioner of the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA), and has recently been appointed as the Foreign Secretary of the National Academy of Medicine (NAM) (formerly Institute of Medicine, IOM). In this part-time position, she will serve as a senior adviser on international matters to the NAM president and council, and as liaison to foreign academies of medicine and science. As NAM engagement in matters of health that extend beyond the United States continues to expand, so does the importance of the Foreign Secretary’s role. Her past roles have also included senior scientist at the Nuclear Threat Initiative; assistant secretary for policy and evaluation in the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services; and commissioner of the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. Since her election to the IOM membership in 1994, Dr Hamburg has actively contributed to the mission of the IOM as chair of the Board on Global Health (2005-2009) and as a member of the IOM Council (2005-2009) and various consensus and convening activities. Established in 1970 under the charter of the National Academy of Sciences, the IOM provides independent, objective, evidence-based advice to policymakers, health professionals, the private sector, and the public.

10.2 Daniel Graymore is the Head of DFID’s Global Funds Department and the Senior Representative for DFID in Geneva. He has worked on access to medicines issues for 15 years, joining DFID as an economist and private sector adviser working on the role of business in improving the affordability, accessibility and quality of essential medicines in developing countries. He has worked across the UK government on guidelines to promote good practice in the pharmaceutical industry, and led work on transparency and accountability across the sector. He has worked with WHO and other UN agencies, as well as extensively with pharmaceutical, supply and delivery companies. More recently Mr Graymore was the Head of Office for DFID in Uganda and in Ghana, has worked on regional trade and economic growth in Africa, and led a new, innovative joint unit in the UK government focused on countries on Europe’s borders, supporting them to become more resilient, and to support growth and development. Before DFID Mr Graymore worked in development NGOs, including Christian Aid, focused on policy and advocacy around business and trade.

10.3 Shanelle Hall is the Director of UNICEF’s Supply Division and oversees UNICEF’s global supply chain functions. In this capacity she is responsible for the effective, efficient and ethical provision of essential and emergency supplies to children in need, through direct UNICEF programmes, cooperation with Governments and partners. She also leads UNICEF’s work on product innovation and influencing markets. UNICEF’s global annual expenditures in these areas approach USD 3.382 billion. She has served as a Gavi Board member since 2013. From 2010-2012 she served as Vice-Chair of the GFATM Board Committee on Market Dynamics. She is a part of UNICEF’s global management team. Prior, she was the Chief, Immunization where she is credited of introducing the concept of ‘vaccine security’ as a means of ensuring a sustainable, uninterrupted supply of affordable, quality vaccines to the world’s poorest countries. Ms. Hall has travelled extensively in Africa and Asia in addition to working out of Europe. Prior to joining UNICEF, Ms. Hall worked for nine years in the private sector where she was involved in energy infrastructure development with a focus on China, Indonesia and Latin America. She is a U.S. national from Seattle, Washington. Effective December 2016 Shanelle Hall will take up the post of Deputy Executive Director, Field Results.
10.4 Ummy Ally Mwalimu is the Minister of Health, Community Development, Gender, Elderly and Children of the United Republic of Tanzania as of December 2015. She also serves as a special seat Member of Parliament for Tanga Constituency since 2010. Minister Ummy has been very active in ensuring all people especially children and women have the right to access good standard healthcare services. Prior to this in the period 2010-2015, she served as Deputy Minister of Justice and Constitutional Affairs, Deputy Minister in the Vice President's Office (Environment) as well as Deputy Minister of Community Development, Gender and Children. From 2004 to 2010, she worked as the Programme Officer (Good Governance, Refugees & Gender) at the Embassy of Denmark/DANIDA in Tanzania. Between 2001 and 2003, she was a Legal Officer with a national NGOs Legal and Human Rights Centre (LHRC) and Research Assistant for Economic and Social Research Foundation (ESRF) in Tanzania. In 2001, she was a Junior Consultant with the Office of the Legal Counsel, Organization of Africa Unity (OAU) General Secretariat in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. Minister Ummy graduated with a Master of Laws (LLM in Human Rights and Democratization in Africa) from the University of Pretoria (2001) and Bachelor of Laws (LLB, Hons) from the University of Dar es Salaam (1998).

10.5 Myint Htwe was appointed in April 2016 as Union Minister of Health and Sports by the new Government of the Republic of the Union of Myanmar.
